Well Hello Everyone! First of all I want to again send my sincere thoughts to all of our members that had to endure the stress of preparing and worrying for hurricane Dorian. I know even though we were out of town with some of our chapter members, we too had stress of the unknown. Let us hope we don't have to do that again. I also want to send our thoughts and prayers to the folks in the Bahamas. You don't realize how precious life is until something like this happens.

Congratulations to FL2-A for capturing the Wanderer at Wing Ding! We will be announcing the date and time for a give away as soon as we can.

I also want to thank everyone that came to Wing Ding in Nashville. Thanks to Cardell, Val, Willie, Nakita, Lou, Bonnie, Cliff, Cynthia, Dan, Ray, Claudia, Bill, Cheryl, Harold, Diane What a grand time! I also heard that we have some serious shoppers in our chapter. Can you guess who they are?

Wing Ding for 2020 is in Springfield Missouri next year. Please make plans to attend now. There will be information at the gathering. Email notifications were sent out last week.

Upcoming events that we will be going to is Georgia District Ride in through the beautiful mountains near Dillard Georgia and then the following week is North Carolina District Rally being held near Maggie Valley. There is still time for you to join us!

Please save the dates below for our Santa Sleigh Ride and our Holiday party. Always a FUN time.

Wing Ding 2019 is in the books. I'm sure that all of you who attended had a great time and left a few dollars behind. I look forward to hearing all your stories.

I think that most of us, some won't admit it, have a name for our bikes. Our trusty trike is Misty. I don't remember why the name was chosen, possibly due to the color. She has taken us on many memorable journeys, accompanied by Bunky, our Bunkhouse camper or LT (for little trailer), our small travel trailer. As you can see we have a name for bike stuff. Does your bike have a name? Do you want to share it? Just shout it out at our next gathering. Don't be embarrassed, you are among great friends who will not judge you (right).

The weather this summer has not been kind to riding. Rain, or the threat of it and really hot temperatures has kept most of us off two or three wheels. Never fear, cooler and drier weather will be coming soon, it always does. So if you have any suggestions as to rides please let any member of the chapter team know. We are always looking for new destinations or revisiting past rides.

You should be getting notification of your membership renewal date. Check your membership card. If you are not notified please let me know. These notifications are sent by US mail and email so make sure National GWRRA in Phoenix has your current address and email. Only you can change or update it with them.

Two of my favorite singer/songwriters are Carole King and James Taylor. Carole wrote and recorded and James also recorded "You've Got A Friend". I believe that our chapter takes this song to heart.

Please ride and drive safe.

OH!!! THE PLACES WE HAVE BEEN, THE THINGS WE HAVE SEEN, THE FRIENDS WE HAVE MADE. ALL BECAUSE WE HAVE A GOLDWING.

Chapter 1

Choices and decisions, I have made a lot over the years. Some good, some bad, some that have made me happy, some that have made me sad, some that I regret. One of the best decisions that I made was to convince Tim to get a Goldwing. I had a friend who at the time lived in California and drove a school bus, every morning she would call me. She loves to talk, one of her favorite things to talk about was all her adventures that she and her husband were having with GWRRA and CMA. It was making me a little depressed, all we were doing was sitting around on weekends. These we supposed to be our golden years we could do anything we wanted too, and we were doing nothing.

Now Tim and I had done a little riding before but like many others we gave it up to raise our children who were in many different activities. So, I figured why not try motorcycle riding again. The first decision was to purchase a motorcycle. What type should we get, a Harley ???, I didn't even know what a Goldwing looked like. Our friend had a Goldwing, so I had heard of it but that was about it. Well my very wise husband took me to look at both of them. Oh, the Goldwing looked nice, but it was Honda. All these different thoughts started popping into my head. Was it cool like a Harley? The Goldwing was so big, could Tim hold it up. Well once again my husband was right. Tim knew I was not a Harley Girl. My wonderful husband knew that I hated loud noises, all that had to be done was to start a Harley verses Goldwing instantly the choice was made. A Goldwing it was. After looking around at different dealers we almost purchased a bike, but in one of my moments of boredom, I looked on Craig's list and there was our bike, it was meant to be. Tim was busy watching some sporting thing on TV when I announced that I found our bike. To shut me up about getting a bike Tim agreed to take me to "LOOK" so off we went to somewhere in Miami. We took one look at the bike and brought it right there on the spot.

Now Tim had no motorcycle endorsement so we couldn't even get the bike home let alone ride it. But the first thing we did was join GWRRA. One of the best decisions that we have ever made. The first gathering we went to we knew nothing and no one. We were going to a meeting (didn't know they were called gatherings) everyone there was so nice, people just like us, so far so good. Now Tim had to get his endorsement so we could go riding. To be continued next month.

Chapter Ride Coordinator and Educator Corner

By Ray & Claudia Vega

We are back from Wing Ding where we got the chance to see a lot of friends. I am sure Cheryl and Bill will tell you all about it in their articles. Claudia and I had fun and enjoyed ourselves, even though Claudia was very worried about hurricane Dorian. We came home behind the hurricane and we, especially Claudia, are glad the hurricane was not a direct hit.

While I was reading this chapter in David's book all I could think about was I95 and South Florida! Read it and tell me if it isn't talking to you and every time we travel on I95.

This information is from David L. Hough's "MCN Street Strategies – A Survival Guide for Motorcyclists."

LANE CRASHING

Before You Change Lanes, Take A Good Look Around.

You're cruising down the freeway in Sunday afternoon traffic, heading for home. With an interchange coming up where you know there will be traffic exiting and merging on the right, you stay in the left lane. But there's a pickup truck ahead of you, cruising in the passing lane. You flash your high beam as a signal that you want to pass, but the driver doesn't seem to notice, so you decide to pass the pickup on the right. You quickly check your mirrors, and flick on the right turn signal as you swing over. Suddenly you realize a car in the right lane is also dodging into the same space. Barely able to swerve, you brake to avoid a collision. It's a close call, and your blood boils at the inconsiderate actions of your fellow motorists.

Yes, it's inconsiderate to cruise in the passing lane or to change lanes without signaling. But remember, the purpose of turn signals is to let other drivers know what you're going to do, not what you're already doing. If you start signaling when you first decide to change lanes, perhaps other drivers will realize your intentions.

It's also up to you to keep from getting run over. When changing lanes, you should always look for traffic in adjacent lanes, and position yourself so that you aren't parallel to other vehicles. Watch especially for cars on the other side of a lane you intend to move into. For example, if you observe a car moving up in the right lane you should predict the driver will be changing lanes, too, even if he or she doesn't signal.

Let's discuss this at the next Chapter gathering – bring me your questions and stories when you were in this situation. In the mean time let's ride and have some FUN!

MOTORIST AWARENESS IS EVERYWHERE

by Claudia Vega

I found an article called Safe Driving – Putting Ideas Into Practice – that I thought was interesting and wanted to share with you.

The AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety research shows that drivers' attitudes about safety need to become actions.

The new year is time when we're often inspired to change our behavior. We set goals to get in shape, save money, find a better job – or even drive more safely. But the first step is to identify an area that needs improvement. In looking at results from the 2013 Traffic Safety Culture Index, drivers may want to resolve that they will walk the walk and not just talk the talk when it comes to driving safely.

Since 2008, the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety has conducted an annual national survey of Americans ages 16 and older about their driving behaviors and attitudes. The goal? The Foundation seeks to foster a social climate in which safety for all road users is highly valued and rigorously pursued. As in previous years, the 2013 data indicates a climate in which people understand – and voice – the dangers associated with risky driving behaviors, but don't heed that knowledge much of the time. It's a prevailing attitude that the Foundation characterizes as "Do as I say, not as I do".

For instance, on the topic of drowsy driving, almost 95 percent of drivers believe that it is at least somewhat unacceptable to drive when you're so drowsy that you have trouble keeping your eyes open. But almost 30 percent of drivers also admit to driving under these conditions within the past 30 days. You can find the same attitude in the index's responses about distracted driving. While nearly 89 percent of drivers say that talking on a cell phone while driving is at least somewhat of a concern, close to 70 percent admit to talking on a cell phone while driving within the last 30 days.

So, it becomes clear when looking at these results that many drivers perform the same activities that they recognize as being dangerous. Many lives and dollars could be saved on our roads if motorists put into action their beliefs and values about safe driving.

The AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety funds research projects and develops resources for all road users.

Looking Glass Falls is one of the most popular and beautiful waterfalls in NC. The name "Looking Glass" comes from Looking Glass Rock, where water freezes on its sides in the winter and then glistens in the sunlight like a mirror or looking glass. It is a popular spot for travelers along U.S. 276. Steps lead down to the falls for a close-up view. The waterfall is 60 ft. tall. Nearby are Sliding Rock, Moore Cove Falls, Daniel Ridge Falls, Log Hollow Falls, Cove Creek Falls, Slick Rock Falls, Pink Beds Hike and the Forest Discovery Center at Cradle of Forestry.
